

GAËLLE CHOISNE

CV

Gaëlle Choïsne (1985, FR) lives and works in Paris and Fougères (FR) and the world

Sensitive to contemporary issues, Gaëlle Choïsne's practice considers the complexity of the world, its political and cultural disorder, whether it be the over-exploitation of nature, its resources, or the vestiges of colonial history, where Creole esoteric traditions, myths and popular cultures mingle.

Her projects are conceived as ecosystems of sharing and collaboration, pockets of «resistance» where new possibilities are created, notably with the «Temple of Love» project. Initiated from Roland Barthes' original essay on love, «Fragments d'un discours amoureux» (1977), Gaëlle Choïsne adds a political dimension to the concept of love by paying homage to invisible bodies, minority and fragile souls, and dispossessed hearts. «Temple of love » is an evolutionary project defining itself through its modes of appearance and genesis according to its invitations and its location.

The works/installations of Gaëlle Choïsne have been exhibited in many institutions: Korschthal – Esch-sur-Alzette (Luxembourg), MAC VAL (Vitry-sur-Seine), Centrale Powerhouse (Montreal), CAFA Museum (Beijing), Pera Museum (Istanbul), MAM - Musée d'art moderne de Paris, Musée Fabre (Montpellier), Zacheta Gallery (Warsaw), The Mistake Room (Los Angeles), Bétonsalon (Paris), Gr-und project space (Berlin), MAMO - Centre d'art de la Cité radieuse de Marseille, La Villette x Pompidou (Paris), Centre d'art contemporain La Halle des bouchers (Vienne), Musée archéologique Henri-Prade (Lattes), Musée des Beaux-Arts de Lyon etc.

She has also participated in several biennials and triennials: 14th Taipei Biennial (2025-2026), 15th Gwangju Biennial (2024), 3rd Toronto Biennial of Art (2024), 5th New Museum Triennial (2021), 11th International Biennial of Contemporary Art (GIBCA), 13th International Biennial of Lyon (2015), 12th Havana Biennial (2015), Sharjah Biennial 13 (2017) and 14th Curitiba Biennial (2017). She has been part of many residency programs in France and internationally such as the prestigious Rijksakademie (Amsterdam), Art explorà, Manufacture de Sèvres (after Penone, Soulages and Louise Bourgeois), "Meeting Points collaboration" with CCA -Campus Caraïbéen des Arts (Martinique), Bethanien-KW (Berlin), Atelier Van Lieshout (Rotterdam), the Cité Internationale des Arts de Paris and OPTICA & Art3 Valence (Montreal).

In 2024, Gaëlle Choïsne won the Marcel Duchamp Prize and, in 2021, the AWARE Prize. In 2019 she is nominated for the Ricard Foundation Prize.

Gaëlle Choïsne is non exclusive represented by the gallery Nicoletti Contemporary (UK) and 193 Gallery and in collaboration with Kaufmann Repetto (NYC & Milan).
